

Directions to the United States Courthouse Baltimore, Maryland

Parking:

A = Recommended parking garage (Approx. $10)

B = Alternate parking garage (Approx. $25)

There are cheaper garages further from the courthouse if you have enough time to drive around. Street parking is cheapest, but keep in mind that we do not know when your hearing will be called. If the Court is running behind, you may wait a long time before your case is called.

From the Northeast:

Take 95 South. Go through the Fort McHenry Tunnel (not Baltimore Harbor Tunnel). After going through the tunnel, stay to the right and exit at 395 (downtown) into the downtown area. Make a right onto Pratt Street. Make a left onto Hanover Street. The Courthouse is located between Pratt and Lombard Streets.

From the West:

Take I-70 East to 695 South (Baltimore Beltway) to 95 North (to Baltimore). Take 95 North to 395 (downtown). Make a right onto Pratt Street. Make a left onto Hanover Street. The Courthouse is located between Pratt and Lombard Streets.

From the South via I-95:

Take I-95 North to exit 53/I-395N. Follow the exit towards the Inner Harbor. Make a right onto Pratt Street. Make a left onto Hanover Street. The Courthouse is located between Pratt and Lombard Streets.

From the South via I-295/Baltimore-Washington Parkway:

Take 295 North. Follow 295 into Baltimore city. Make a right onto Pratt Street. Make a left onto Hanover Street. The Courthouse is located between Pratt and Lombard Streets.